Healing

by Bonnie Meyer

Most Christian people do not have difficulty believing God and Jesus possess the gift of healing, the ability to mend sick bodies and minds. But how many believe that the power of God can flow through a spiritual healer? Society tells us that we cannot heal and yet many people tell us they can.

Two Sides at Work Here

There are two sides at work here at this time, the positive and the negative and both of them have the power to heal. Instincts should be engaged to know which side you are dealing with. Most don't realize they could be drawing from the negative side if they do not ask for the healing to come from Jesus and God. Always remember that the anti-christ can heal as well; yes the negative side of the source can heal but along with his healing comes a price tag that you would not want to pay. It is never given unconditionally and there are always strings attached. Often times the return payment is deceptive and may not come right away. So be leery of healers who claim that they can heal and do not recognize Jesus and God as beings the source of their healing. Their power to heal is probably coming from the negative side of the force. A real spiritual healer at all times recognizes God and admits that it is His healing that flows through them. I have personally heard of only a very few who recognize God as being the source of their healing.

Do you remember in the Bible that Jesus says, "You can do all that I can and more?" But does anyone really believe that? I believe that yes, we can heal just as Jesus can, because like Him we are a part of the God force that exists in all of us. Therefore we can be just as great a healer as he, just look to the Bible.

God's Healing Force

The most effective people in the healing ministry are those who are painfully aware of their own limitations, yet put themselves at God's disposal where all things are possible. Anyone who believes that it is he or she who are the healers have forgotten where their power comes from and often times open themselves up to deceptive forces. Without their knowledge they are using forces not of the light for healing, or as many people say from the negative side of the force. A feeling of unworthiness does not remove our responsibility for exercising the healing ministry and should only make us more sensitive instruments for the Lord's work.

Beware of Fake Healers

I was at a conference and the speaker said he was working with the gray type of aliens and he was setting up a healing center. The aliens were willing to heal anyone who came but they were required to receive an implant.

Some Important Suggestions

by Bonnie Meyer

To become a good spiritual healer or Lightworker here are a few suggestions to help on your way:

- Never suggest that an individual discontinue medication, treatment or therapy. The healing of God also comes through these channels. Natural compounds for healing are becoming rarer, because of the pollution that abounds on the planet. Many of the natural remedies God has given us have been destroyed, so be careful of natural remedies as they are not as pure or healthy as they once were, even if they claim to be.
- Accept people as they are, as this is a sign of real maturity. Remember but for the grace of God you might be them. Engage in the activity Jesus taught and that is to "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."
- Sometimes it becomes necessary to confront someone when a situation, attitude or their actions are destructive to themselves or to others. Have your say and then put the situation in God's hands. You may never know if what you said did any good or not, but it is not necessary to know as it has been left in the hands of God.
- Maintain the kind of free and open relationships necessary for spiritual growth. God gave us free will and He will not violate that free will even if you choose a different life than He wants for all of us.

- Remember that if a death occurs rather than a healing, God calls us all home in His timing.

CAN WE REALLY DO THIS?

Do you remember in the Bible that Jesus says, "You can do all that I can and more?" But does anyone really believe that? I believe that yes, we can heal just as Jesus can.

"THEY WILL DO EVEN GREATER THINGS"
John 14:12

The forces of darkness can heal but there are always strings attached. I wouldn't want to be healed of the body and yet lose my soul.

Beware of Fake Healers

by Bonnie Meyer

I was at a conference and the speaker said he was working with the gray type of aliens and he was setting up a healing center. The aliens were willing to heal anyone who came but they were required to receive an implant so that the aliens knew where they were at all times.

The speaker asked who in the audience would like to be healed. I was surprised at the number of people who raised their hands. This bothered me for the rest of the day and that night I asked the aliens I work with what was this all about. They asked me what I thought and I replied that I felt it was a ruse just to get the implants into people so they could be abducted whenever the aliens wanted to.

Monn, the alien I was talking to, explained that the forces of darkness can heal but there are always strings attached. I wouldn't want to be healed of the body and yet lose my soul. I would have been giving those gray aliens permission to abduct me, giving them permission to do as they pleased. Monn said, this is how they operate, they give you something and you must give them something back. Because you consciously made the decision to accept the healing the negative aliens will tell you there is nothing you can do about it. But that is a lie. You don't have to allow the aliens to experiment on you or do anything else to you. You can always change your mind you have free will and you can always call on the Creator to help you null and void the contract.

HEALING TIPS

What Is Really Needed

To heal whether it is alone or with others, consider what is needed for a spiritually positive healing. God helps those who help themselves. This does not mean we can sit back and passively wait for God to handle everything. Seeking the Lord's guidance is an essential factor in a healing prayer. Always call upon the light of the Creator and ask "Lord what you want to do in this situation." Then act in accordance with His leading. It takes practice to develop this kind of a listening ear. So how does one heal with the Lord's guidance?

FAST FACTS

100% Faith

Have 100% faith in God that it will work or it will not. Everyone can do this with His help. God has given everyone the authority to move mountains if it is for a righteous reason.

Listen

Don't fail to recognize the prompting of God, which can come through dreams, visions, prophetic words and imagination.

FORGIVE

Be willing to forgive, as nothing will impede our ability to pray for ourselves or for others more than unwillingness to forgive. This acts as an invisible barrier between us and God.

Essential Tips

by Bonnie Meyer

- Have 100% faith in God that it will work or it will not. Everyone can do this with His help. God has given everyone the authority to move mountains if it is for a righteous reason.
 - Recognize that God gave us the responsibility to keep all things safe and in balance and to be caretakers and stewards of planet Earth. He did not give us the authority to destroy His beautiful creations. In the book of Genesis God said, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the Earth and conquer it. Be master of the fish of the sea, the bird of the air and all living animals upon the Earth."
 - Believe you already have what it is you ask and pray for, within reason and for a righteous purpose and it will be yours. Remember to ask only for what is needed to survive on this planet as that is all that is guaranteed. God never said, He would produce a mansion or lots of money, if we ask for more than we need we are not being spiritual because we could be taking from someone else who needs this to survive. Remember to be careful of everything you ask and pray for because once you have it, you may not like the responsibility that comes along with it.
 - If you have health issues, stop and think, did I give this to myself by being uptight, or unbalanced. Maybe, just maybe there might be a lesson that you should learn from this health issue. Sometimes a health issue may be genetic and you maybe cannot be helped in this lifetime. Always be aware that someone could be trying to make you ill, and ask God for help in rectifying the situation.
 - Don't fail to recognize the prompting of God, which can come through dreams, visions, prophetic words and imagination. Because we have not learned to trust our senses we have a tendency to disregard anything as unimportant
- that we cannot touch, taste, see or smell. Many times I get messages while I sleep, sometimes from God and sometimes the aliens I work with have given me messages during my sleeping time.
- Be willing to forgive, as nothing will impede our ability to pray for ourselves or for others more than unwillingness to forgive. This acts as an invisible barrier between us and God. When you pray to forgive another, forgive whatever you have against them, and ask for forgiveness for any wrong doing you might have done as well. Accept everyone as they are as this is a real sign of maturity. Point out another person's good qualities, because most people are overly conscious of their failings of perfection. Stay in balance with everything around you as you cannot be a healer or spiritual without this balance and love. This includes people we do not get along with or agree with on all subjects. Only by letting go of part hurts, forgiving and looking to the future can one see clearly and begin to heal.
 - When you have a healing circle there is a bigger current of divine energy flowing through the group and you can feel this flow of energy. In a healing circle a negative person or one of a low vibrational level can interrupt the energy for healing if there should be a death instead of healing remember God calls us all home when he chooses. Remember a healer must stay balanced at all times. This includes their personal and spiritual life, only a balanced person can be a balanced healer.
 - If there should be a death instead of healing remember God calls us all home when he chooses. Remember a healer must stay balanced at all times. This includes their personal and spiritual life, only a balanced person can be a balanced healer.

Healing Circles

I would like to add a little more on healing circles. At some of the meeting where I attended, people claimed to be very spiritual. Many of these groups have requested healing circles to help save the planet or often times to pray for others. The circle is only as strong as the weakest link. This has caused me to be cautious for the following reasons:

- I am not sure where everyone is spirituality on their path.
- I feel that I don't know where everyone is getting the power to heal. In other words healing is like a big caldron; you can dip into it and do with it as you please. In other words you can use it in a spiritual or a negative way.
- While in a healing circle you let your energies pass from one to another becoming stronger and stronger until you get to a person using the negative side of the force. This can disrupt the energy, and you can receive negativity without even realizing it. Have you ever wondered why sometimes after a healing circle you feel different? Maybe you are having a hard time staying balanced or even being civil to people around you. I believe negativity can be passed from person to person, just as passing peace, balance and love to another is possible.

On a personal note, I would like to tell you that through the years I have seen very spiritual groups of people who worked together very well and kept trying to help one another. The individuals would constantly watch each other's back. This continued until suddenly someone begins having problems, which disrupts the whole group. When this happens there is no longer a bond and trust in one another. This puts a wedge between people of like mind who are on the same spiritual path. Sometimes not everyone within the group even recognizes it or would like to deny what is happening. In some cases it can be years and maybe never that this can be resolved, as the bond of trust has been damaged. What can be done about this? I have no answers other than to remain always vigilant, as even Jesus himself was tempted and he put the situation into God's hands and hoped and prayed for the best possible outcome.

So this is why I shy away from healing circles unless I know everyone very well, and even then there are times when I know something is wrong during the healing circle. So I pray that any negativity is expelled from the circle and no harm is done to anyone there. I then ask God to do any healing that He knows is needed.

Become a good listener to become a good healer. Be interested in others and be non-judgmental and loving to them. Be compassionate, to understand the suffering of another requires us to enter into the other persons pain. Sometimes it is necessary to confront someone when a situation, attitudes or actions of a person are destructive to himself or others.

The healings of God also comes through healing circles and this does not imply a lack of faith. Maintain free and open relationships necessary for spiritual growth. Remember God gave us free will, he will not violate it.

Where Does The Power Really Come From?

by Bonnie Meyer

Many people when asking for a healing request that the healing come from birds, reptiles, mammals, rocks, plants, minerals or part of the creation. Or they give their reverence to these different kingdoms in creation. While respecting nature is a good thing to do I feel that well-intentioned individuals may be miss-guided without their knowledge as all healing comes from The Creator of all. He is the one who should receive reverence. The Creator has given us dominion and stewardship over His beautiful creations. The kingdoms of rock, plant or mineral etc. do not possess more knowledge than we do for healing. By calling on healing from the created rather than the one who created them one may be unwittingly drawing from the negative side of the force. The created does not possess the power to heal only The Creator does.

The Lightside UFO Study Group

We have been active for over 30 years. To share what we've learned in this time, we have completed a series of informative books that detail much of what the group has discovered throughout their history. But our website also provides a number of free resources that you may use in the course of your personal UFO studies.
